ITINERARY

Day 1: March 12: CAIRO

Arrive in Cairo, the vibrant heart of Egypt. The energy here is unmatched — a collision of honking horns, swirling markets, and a thousand years of Islamic, Christian, and modern history stacked together.
After pickup from the airport and transfer to hotel, time to relax and rest after the long flight. Later in the evening, we head to Khan El Khalili Market, one of the oldest bazaars in the Middle East. Wandering its maze-like alleys filled with lanterns, spices, antiques, and artisans is the perfect way to tap into Cairo's soul. It's more than shopping — it's a sensory plunge into Egypt's living history. For dinner you could try traditional Egyptian food like Baba ghanoush, tahini, stuffed vine leaves (wara' enab), crispy falafel made with fava beans (a uniquely Egyptian twist), Kofta (mincemeat kabab), Molokhia, etc. Later, back to the hotel. Overnight in Cairo..

Walk around and understand the ingenuity of ancient Egyptians through our expert local guides. Later, after lunch, we head to the Egyptian Museum. With over 120,000 artifacts, it's not just a museum; it's a gateway into 5,000 years of civilization. Once inside, you're met with a staggering collection: towering statues, papyrus scrolls, jewelry, sarcophagi, and countless everyday objects that tell us how the ancients lived, worshipped, and ruled. The temple's inscriptions provide valuable insights into ancient Egyptian religion and mythology, particularly the legendary conflict between Horus and Seth. Also visit Temple of Kom Ombo : Situated on a promontory overlooking the Nile, approximately 40 km north of Aswan, the Temple of Kom Ombo is unique for its dual dedication to two deities: Sobek, the crocodile god, and Haroeris (Horus the Elder).
