EXOTIC EXPEDITIONS

Experiential journeys for the exploring traveller

VIENTINE - VANG VIENG LUANG PRABANG

FEB 21 – 27, 2027

OVERVIEW

Travellers come to Laos to experience the rolling mountains, remote villages, simple people, tribal crafts and the magic of the Mekong. Lao is a land of Buddhist traditions, where saffron-robed teens peek curiously out from wats (temples) and no one is in a hurry. Luang Prabang's UNESCO-protected temples and mixed heritage soothe the soul, Vientianne – one of the world's smallest capitals – moves at the same serene pace as the Mekong River meandering by its shores, and Vang Vieng surrounded by karst mountains and beautiful topography. For those searching for an authentic South East Asian experience, Laos is the place to go

ITINERARY

Day 1: February 21st: Vientine

Arrive in Vientiane and transfer to the hotel. Vientiane, Laos' laid-back capital, blends French colonial charm, Buddhist temples, riverside sunsets, vibrant markets, and a relaxed Mekong-side atmosphere. Afternoon and evening, explore the downtown area, Mekong Riverfront, the wats (pagodas), and the nightlife of Vientiane on a walking tour. Overnight in Vientiane.

Day 2: February 22nd: Vientiane to Vang Vieng (120 kms / 1 hour)

After breakfast, transfer to Vang Vieng by a Mini Van/High Speed Train. The mountain scenery en route is as impressive as that of your destination. Situated on the Nam Song River, Vang Vieng is surrounded by towering limestone karsts. Once famed for parties, it now draws adventurers and tourists for tubing, kayaking, hiking, hot-air balloons, and serene landscapes. Evening visit the night market at Vang Vieng.

ITINERARY

Day 3: February 23rd – Vang Vieng

Vang Vieng is known as an adventure town, thanks to its unique and varied surrounding countryside. Its many local caves and lagoons (natural swimming pools) which are easily accessible and make for great day trips. Today we do a half day tour of Tham Chang Caves, Tham Phu Kham Cave and Blue Lagoon. Later after lunch you can choose to do tubing, ziplining or kayaking (optional).Evening explore Vang Vieng night life and markets. Overnight at Vang Vieng.

ITINERARY

Day 4: February 24th – Vang Vieng to Luang Prabang (150 kms / 1.15 hours)

After breakfast transfer to Luang Prabang by Mini Van/Train. Luang Prabang, a UNESCO World Heritage town, captivates with golden temples, French colonial streets, morning alms-giving, Mekong sunsets, and Kuang Si Falls. Its tranquil atmosphere blends spirituality, culture, and natural beauty, making it Laos' cultural heart. Evening free to walk around Luang Prabang and the riverside. Overnight at Luang Prabang.

ITINERARY

Day 5: February 25th – Luang Prabang City Tour

Those who are interested can wake up early to see the alms giving ceremony where hundreds of monks walk through the streets collecting alms from the locals. Its a beautiful experience and makes for good photo opportunities.
After breakfast we go on a half day walking tour of Luang Prabang and visit the Morning Market (As Luang Prabang is also the largest town in Northern Laos, people from surrounding villages, come here to sell their products. They can be fresh vegetables, to steamed fish, frogs, dried buffalo meat, banana chips, deep-fried bamboo shoots and anything else that might be the day's catch from nearly river or jungle). Later explore the Old quarters with its many wats (buddhists temples) like Wat Wisunarat, Wat Aham and Wat XiengThong. Afternoon lunch and rest. Later optionally we could take a local ferry and cross the Mekong river. After some afternoon rest evening visit Royal Palace and Phousi Hill for panoramic beautiful sunset views of the Mekong river, Luang Prabang town and the surrounding countryside.
Late evening we visit the Night Market. From 5PM, the entire length of the street is closed off to vehicles and turned into a walking and shopping street. Shops and hotels lining both sides of the road are also opened for business, selling handmade souvenirs, Lao coffee beans, homemade whiskys, and books. At the end of the market, you can see food stalls selling Laotian street food at affordable prices. Overnight at Luang Prabang.

ITINERARY

Day 6: February 26th – Kuang Si Falls, Pak Ou Caves and Mekong Sunset Cruise

After breakfast we visit one of the most beautiful waterfalls in Asia, Kuang Si falls. This multi-layer waterfall has turquoise pools under most of the falls, and might be one of the most beautiful falls you will see. Swimming is allowed in some of the pools. After spending 2 hours at the falls we leave for Ban Na Uang (a Hmong resettlement village). Here you can meet the Hmong people who originally lived in the highlands. Later visit Manifa Elephant Camp, for lunch. Enjoy a buffet lunch at the restaurant with a view of the Mekong River and free-roaming elephants. Around 14:30, we take a long tail slow boat to trip on the mighty Mekong river. Enjoy the many views from the water, witness rural Laos, pass by local villages, fishers, and children and soak up the scenes of daily life by the river. Our boat travels slowly along the Mekong to Pak Ou Caves. We arrive at a small boat landing dock where stairs lead you straight to the cave. These limestone caves have been places of worship for thousands of years, and Buddhist statues and idols have filled these natural caves. Hear legends and stories about the caves from your guide and explore the caves.

After visiting the caves, the boat will enter the Ou River to see the spectacular limestone cliffs. Back on the Mekong River again, we go down the river and we stop at the Ban Xang Hai, also known as the Whisky Village. Here you see the process of making Lao Lao, the country's beloved rice whiskey, and taste the fresh local delights. Depart from Ban Xang Hai from 16 to 16:30 and slowly return to Luang Prabang for an hour and a half to two hours. You can see the beautiful sunset from the boat.

Back to Luang Prabang by 6 – 6.30 p.m. and rest after a long day. Overnight at Luang Prabang

ITINERARY

Day 7: February 27th – Luang Prabang (Departure)

After breakfast transfer to the airport. End of tour

LOCATIONS

VIENTIANE

Vientiane, situated along the Mekong River near the Thai border, has long been a cultural and political hub of Laos. Historically influenced by Khmer, Siamese, and French colonial rule, it became the nation’s capital in 1563. Its geography fosters fertile plains and vital trade routes.

VANG VIENG

Vang Vieng, nestled between limestone karsts and the Nam Song River, is a scenic town in central Laos. Historically a small farming community, it gained prominence as a backpacker haven. Its geography of caves, cliffs, and lush valleys supports agriculture and adventure tourism, blending rural traditions with natural beauty that attracts travelers seeking both culture and outdoor exploration.

LOCATIONS

LUANG PRABANG

Luang Prabang, set at the confluence of the Mekong and Nam Khan rivers, is surrounded by forested mountains that shaped its role as a royal and spiritual capital of Laos. Once central to the Lan Xang Kingdom and later influenced by French colonial rule, it now stands as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Visitors can explore its golden temples like Wat Xieng Thong, the Royal Palace, and French-era villas, while experiencing the daily alms-giving ritual of monks. Nearby, Kuang Si Falls and Pak Ou Caves highlight the harmony of nature and culture, making Luang Prabang both historically rich and geographically captivating.
